DICK CLARK

Dick Clark was a famous television TV host who became very special to New Year's Eve celebrations because he helped people across America count down to the New Year for many years. He hosted a show called Dick Clark's New Year's Rockin' Eve, which brought newer music and fun, to the exciting ball drop in New York City right into everyone's homes beginning in 1972. New hosts are on the show today, but it is still called Dick Clark's New Year's Rockin' Eve!
