Read the oral history interview and complete the mill village math activity first! Think about the unsafe working conditions in mills, the number of hours employees worked, and the amount they were paid. What's different today? How would your life be different if you worked in a mill 100 years ago?